

In the dessert of peace, roams a predator that is exotic in its form, enigmatic in its grace, embodying the soul of a monk while carrying the heart of an emperor. The Snow Leopard or Shen as it is called locally is a true valentine of the snow. It ventures in areas where realities run thin and dreams take over. It rules a land where the urban chaos fades into an overpowering silence of the white. Kibber, a village nestled at a height of 14,200 ft high in the Spiti Valley is where we thrive.

Come witness one of the most iconic species in the world.
